with the committee amendment.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I have no problem with the committee amendment now that Senator Brashear has satisfied me as to its meaning.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Brashear, there are no further lights on. Did you wish to close on the committee amendments?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Yes, Mr. President, and I'd like to, as I begin, because it's not going to be very long, I'd like to ask for a call of the house, please.

SENATOR CUDABACK: There's a request for the call of the house. All in favor of the house going under call vote aye, opposed nay. Record, please, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 11 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The house is under call. All unexcused personnel please leave the floor. All senators check in that aren't excused. The house is under call. The house is under call. All unexcused senators please check in. Did you wish to start your closing, Senator Brashear?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Yes, Mr. President. Substantively, the amendment...these are recommendations that came from an entire group of people who worked on all of this technical language. Substantively, the amendment does not make any changes to the green copy. It's simply a matter of clarification and proper editing and I would urge the adoption of the amendment. I think the colloquy with Senator Chambers establishes, for the record, that we're not doing anything untoward and I would ask for the support of the body. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen, Janssen, and Senator Jones, please check in, please. The house is under call. Senator Kristensen, Matzke and Landis. Senator Dwite Pedersen, Senator
